What To Expect At The Singapore Motorshow 2018

January 5, 2018

The Singapore Motorshow is Singapore’s largest and most prestigious annual motoring event. Every year, it entertains visitors of all walks of life and ages with a variety of activities. This year, the Singapore Motorshow 2018 is the 13th edition of the Singapore Motorshow.

Exclusive Deals For Every Driver

The show runs from 11 to 14 January 2018, at the Suntec Singapore Convention & Exhibition Centre (Level 3 & 4). It features 24 brand new models from Citroën, Honda, Hyundai, Infiniti, Land Rover, and more. In addition, car buyers can look forward to exclusive automotive deals with more than 170 cars and concept cars on display from over 25 automotive brands. Some non-automotive exhibitors will also be presenting their automotive accessories, lifestyle products, and services.

Whether you’re getting a new car or looking to improve your current driving experience, you’ll find it there.

Performances, Games, Goodie Bags, and More!

For those who are looking for some cool entertainment, Russ Swift has got you covered. The threetime Guinness World Record holder and British precision driver will perform at multiple points throughout the four-day event. Each performance will run for approximately 45 minutes.

Tickets for his show are separate from the event's entrance ticket, and will be available for collection an hour before each showtime. The best part? Tickets are free of charge! Just go to the Stunt Show (Wristband Collection) counter on level 4 to collect them. It's first-come-first-served, so make sure to go early!

Russ Swift is also sponsored by Subaru. As such, Subaru will also be giving away tickets to the stunt performance with purchase of their merchandise.

For the full schedule of performances, visit the Singapore Motorshow 2018 website for more details.

That's not all though. Visitors to the AIG Singapore booth will get to try their hand at the AIG On The Go safety driving game. The game takes up to four players at a time, and will assess each player's driving performance against key driving parameters. The safest driver with the highest score will win an iPhone XI!

Car buyers who purchase AIG Auto Insurance at any of AIG Singapore's auto dealers will also be able to take part in a Sure-Win lucky spin. Just head on over to the AIG Singapore redemption booth, and redeem attractive gifts such as $300 worth of petrol vouchers!

New car buyers at the event who select HL Bank to finance their car will also be able to redeem goodie bags at the bank's booth. These bags let you stand a chance to win attractive prizes, so what are you waiting for?

More Than Just Driving

Shell will also be organising various activities as part of their Drive On Campaign. Visitors can try their hands on a racing simulator, bicycle pedalling station, and other games. There will also be an #sgdriveon competition, where the most creative photo at the event will stand a chance to win an iPhone X.

Shell will also have four Driving Aspirations stations where the first 200 visitors will be eligible for self-portrait caricatures based on the highest score from the stations they completed.

You can also visit the Mediacorp booth to catch multiple radio shows as they broadcast live! Catch Mediacorp celebrities, ranging from Radio DJs to Artistes and more.
